

Rules of THE DANISH SOCIETY (INC)

1. NAME

The name of the Society is "The Danish Society Incorporated".

2. OFFICE

The office of the Society shall be at the home address of the President of the Society or such other place as the executive may from time to time determine.

3. OBJECTS

The objects for which The Danish Society Inc is established are:

- 3.1 To preserve, maintain, promote, foster and encourage Danish history, culture and language within New Zealand.
- 3.2 To promote better understanding and relations between Danes and other ethnic people in New Zealand.
- 3.3 To exercise all or any of the powers contained or referred to in Rule 21 hereof for the purpose of benefiting the Society and/or the furtherance of its objectives.
- 3.4 To maintain contact and establish liaisons with similarly interested organisations both in New Zealand and overseas and to encourage the exchange of information between these organisations.
- 3.5 To do all such acts or things and make such arrangements whatsoever which, in opinion of the Committee of the Society (including Rule 21), are incidental or conducive to the objectives of the Society and which, in the opinion of the Committee, can be advantageously carried out, performed, done or executed for the benefit of the Society and/or the furtherance of its objectives.

In the event of any ambiguity, this clause and each and every other clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the committee.

4. MEMBERSHIP and CLASSES OF MEMBERS

- 4.1 The Society shall consist of Ordinary Members, Youth Club Members, Honorary Members, Life Members and Associate Members. The number of Associate Members shall not exceed the number of Ordinary Members.

4.2 Ordinary members:

Existing Ordinary Members of the Society as at the date of the adoption of these Rules shall be Ordinary Members.

All persons who are or have been Nationals of Denmark, or who are descendants of Danish Nationals or who are married to any such person, are eligible for membership as Ordinary Members.

Partners in a de facto relationship with an Ordinary Member of the Society can become a full voting member (Ordinary Member) with the proviso that if said partnership fails and the pair move apart, then the non-Danish partner would revert to non-voting status (Associate Member).

Anyone who does not fit the above criteria may also become a member as per rule 4.3 below.

4.3 Associate members:

- 4.3.1 Persons who have a genuine interest in Denmark, its people and customs, may become Associate Members by application to the Committee,

- 4.3.2 An Associate Member shall be entitled to all the privileges of Ordinary Members of the Society with the exception that no Associate Member may vote at any meeting of the Society, and is not qualified to be a member of the main committee, or to participate in the appointment of any candidate for office.

Rules of THE DANISH SOCIETY (INC)

4.4 Life members:

A new member for Life can be considered on recommendation by the Committee and endorsement by a General Meeting. Upon appointment, a life member shall cease to be liable for any further subscriptions and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of Ordinary Members.

4.5 New members:

New Members of any class (except Life Members and Honorary Members) shall be admitted after written application, upon election by a simple majority of the committee members present at a Committee Meeting.

4.6 Affiliated societies:

4.6.1 The Danish Society may accept affiliation from any other similar Society or Club upon receipt, and approval, of written application and settlement of any applicable Affiliated Fee as determined from time to time by the committee or the Society in General Meeting.

4.6.2 An Affiliated Society or Club can hire the Danish House at the Affiliated Society Rate as determined from time to time by the committee or the Society in General Meeting. Affiliation does not make the Affiliated Society, or its individual members, eligible to vote at any meeting of the Danish Society, to be a member of the committee, to participate in the appointment of any candidate for office, or to book Valhalla.

4.6.3 An Affiliated Society or Club may be dis-affiliated from the Danish Society on the resolution of the committee, by simple majority of committee members present at a committee meeting (or by the Society in General Meeting) or by the Affiliated Society itself in accordance to rule 6.0 Resignation.

4.7 Youth Club members:

Youth Club Member's shall be members up to the age of 18 years.

4.8 Honorary members:

Persons of any nationality may be nominated and elected honorary members of the Society to honour special services rendered for the benefit of the Society.

5. SUBSCRIPTIONS

Every member (except Life and Honorary Members) shall pay the annual subscription, as fixed from time to time by resolution at the General Meeting, within the requested (or otherwise agreed) due date outlined on the annual subscription invoice for the financial year, which runs from the first day of October to the last day of September.

The subscription may vary according to membership class and category. New and re-joining members must pay their entry fee and applicable subscription charge before their membership is confirmed.

6. RESIGNATIONS

Any member may resign from membership by giving notice in writing and every such notice shall, unless otherwise expressed take effect as from the end of the current year. Non-payment of subscription for any one year shall be construed as a resignation and by rejoining, entry fee must be paid, or all unpaid subscriptions.

7. EXPULSIONS

7.1 Expulsions -The Society may at any one time by letter invite any member within a special time to retire for breach of these rules and in default of withdrawal to submit the question of the expulsion to a General Meeting to be held within three calendar months from the date of such letter and at such meeting the member whose expulsion is under consideration shall be permitted to offer an explanation verbally and or in writing and if thereafter two-thirds of the members present at such meeting shall vote for the expulsion, shall forthwith cease to be a member but without release from any antecedent liability to the Society provided always that voting at any such meetings shall be by ballot if so demanded by not less than five members.

8. ALTERATIONS

8.1 These rules may be altered, added to, rescinded or otherwise amended by a resolution passed by a twothird majority of those present at a General Meeting of which ten full working days written notice has been given.

Rules of THE DANISH SOCIETY (INC)

- 8.2 Every such notice shall set forth the purpose of the proposed alteration, addition, rescission or other amendment.
- 8.3 Duplicate copies of such alteration, addition, rescission or amendment shall forthwith be delivered to the Registrar in accordance with the requirement of the Act.
