NØJ DET' FOR BØRN

Så er der Legestue!

Så kan The Danish Society i Auckland endelig tilbyde noget for de små igen! Vi har haft flere forespørgsler specielt fra familier, hvor kun den ene forælder taler dansk, om at få en mulighed for at deres børn kan møde andre dansktalende børn (og voksne). Det vil komme til at foregå i leg og musik, mere end egentlig undervisning. Måske kan der senere blive en regulær sprogskole for de lidt ældre børn, hvis der er interesse for det.

I første omgang er vi interesserede i at høre, om der stadig er interesse for sådan en gruppe.

Hvor tit den skal tilbydes, om det skal koste noget osv. vil blive besluttet efter konsultation mellem de interesserede forældre, bestyrelsen for Danish Society og legestuelederen, Emma Tordsson.

Auckland fra Melbourne hvor hun har boet siden 2009. I Melbourne var Emma tilknyttet den danske skole, først som underviser for børnehaveklasse, dernæst for de ældre børn og de sidste 5 år var hun også præsident for skolen. Emma har en Bachelor i audiologopædi (høre tale pædagogik) og Master i sprogpsykologi fra Københavns universitet, og arbejder til daglig i IT når hun ikke er på barsel med 6 måneder gamle Loke.

Så lad os høre fra jer, alle dem, der har små børn, og som gerne vil have, at deres børn lærer at "lege på dansk".

Når jeg har hørt fra et rimeligt antal forældre, aftaler vi de nærmere detaljer med Emma.

PLAY GROUP

Danish-speaking kids

Thanks to one of our members, Emma Tordsson, who taught at the Danish School in Melbourne and has degrees in audiology-pedics and language psychology from the University of Copenhagen, we are now able to offer a new activity at Danish House.

This will be run as a play group with games and music, and will be especially aimed at families who struggle to "keep up the Danish" either because only one of the parents speaks Danish, or just because they have mostly non-Danish friends. Later on, if there's enough interest, we may offer Danish classes for older children. If you're interested in being part of this group, please contact Helle. When we have a sufficient number of interested members, we will discuss the details of how often to meet and price etc. with Emma.

TOM NØRRING

In 2016, the previous Ambassador of Denmark to Australia, New Zealand and Fiji, H.E. Mr Børge Pedersen, retired; and in his place, Denmark appointed H.E. Mr Tom Nørring. He presented his credentials to the New Zealand Governor-General late November. Tom Nørring has a masters in Law from University of Copenhagen and has worked in exports and diplomacy for many years. He has previously been the the Ambassador to Greece and Hungary. He is now based in Canberra. He is married to Claudia Paggianni, and he has two adult daughters. In 2006 he received the Order of Dannebrog.

Come along and meet our new Ambassador at a lovely get-together at Danish House on February 7th. (more information under 'Events')

Med venlig hilsen, Inger (General-Consul)

PRESIDENTS REPORT

GODT NYTÅR

I have a confession to make: my Christmas fairy lights are still up on my balcony. It's my little rebellion and as long as they're still twinkling, it's still holiday time and none of the new year's stresses can touch me... yet. At least, that's what I like to pretend! But here I am, Queen of New Year Denial, here to give you all a gentle prod to get up from your sun-basking, glorious, summer bliss and jump back into some of our great summer events.

FASTELAVN 26TH OF FEB

I'd like to encourage you all: big, small, old, young, with kids, no kids (or even if you're like me and would rather a cold, rainy day and hot mug of kakao than the beach) to come along to Fastelavn on the 26th of February at Long Bay Beach. It really is a tonne of fun no matter your age! There are games and races for adults AND kids – and it's worth the visit just to see the little ones all dressed up in their fastelavn costumes. If you think you're too old (in body or maturity) to enjoy the day...

Firstly, you're wrong, and secondly – just bring a picnic and laze under the trees or out in the sun. It's rare to find a place at Long Bay during summer, and our booked site guarantees you a spot to relax.

This is an event for everyone. It's especially great for new members to be able to come and meet existing ones, so come and make some new friends! We've extended the invite to the Finns and Swedes, so it'll be one big Scandi Day Out, and (if you all come) we'll be guaranteed to best them in the traditional tug-of-war. Hopefully my blatant pitch here has won a few of you over to the fun side!

In other news, keep an eye out for the regular events starting up again – the Wednesday Morning Group has another year of interesting talks planned, Hygge Klub is inviting new members of all ages to come along and hygge, Open Houses are always open on the first Sunday of the month, and Folk Dancing and Card Players will soon be back in full swing.

MEET THE DANISH AMBASSADOR

At the beginning of February we'll have a visit from the new Danish Ambassador, Tom Nørring, and all members are invited to a free cocktail evening to meet him on the 7th.

On the night of Fastelavn we're hosting a concert in conjunction with the Austrian Club who have some world-renowned Austrian musicians coming to give a concert for us – see inside for details! Then, after the overwhelming response we've had from our concerts showcasing the new piano, we've got another concert coming up on the 12th of March with Gemma Lee and Jane Horder who'll be giving musical theatre lovers a treat.

I'd also like to take the opportunity to welcome our newest members – those who have been born into the club! To the ones we know of: Loke, Mikah and Asger – VELKOMMEN! Welcome to your unique experience on this earth as a DanNZ-ker.

That's all from me this month, I'll probably still be in denial that Jul is over when you see me in February so be gentle and don't shatter my holiday dreams. Come and say hej and visit the presidential picnic blanket at Fastelavn – I'll be there!

See you at the club... soon...

Anna

CRUISING THE HARBOUR

PACIFIC MERMAID

The final event of the Wednesday group on 26th October 2016 was a wonderful cruise on the Harbour on board the luxury super yacht "Pacific Mermaid." This arose from a generous invitation from Ken and Bente Winter, when they gave a talk to the Wednesday Group in 2015 about shipping the Pacific Mermaid to Denmark, and spending a summer cruising in Danish waters.

We were about 38 members of the Danish Society and friends from the Wednesday Group, plus the crew of six who were all members of the Winter family. The vessel is beautifully furnished and in immaculate condition throughout. We had lunch on board, near the Chelsea Sugar refinery, then returned under the harbour bridge, cruised through West Haven marina, past the wharves, and back to Orakei marina. A presentation was made to Ken and Bente, with warm thanks to their family for a memorable day on the Waitemata.

This gathering was the last to be organised by Karen Andersen Yates, who started the Wednesday group in 2007 and has been the leader for nine years. The Wednesday Group will continue in the future, guided by those who worked with Karen. A special presentation was made to Karen, who had the vision and enthusiasm to plan and produce a wide range of talks on interesting topics related to Denmark and Danes who migrated to New Zealand.

Our gratitude to Karen was expressed in a poem composed by Carlo Mikkelsen

KAREN`S BOUQUET.

A floral bouquet is an amassment of beauty, arranged to complement an occasion.

To celebrate your life with agreeable flowers, your bouquet will abundantly embrace an array of nature`s wonders. Picking your life`s bouquet, it will hold :-

A single red rose, illustrating pristinely the brightness you always bestow with your presence.

A group of white gardenias, declaring your honesty and the fragrance emphasising your charm.

A cluster of the delicate frangipani, exuding the warmth of your personality.

A host of busy lizzie, exemplifying in a colourful manner your uncomplicated nature.

A solitary edelweiss, persistently blooming even after the harshest of winter.

Lavishly it will be covered with the common daisy, to ardently proclaim your unreserved love for your friends and family.

CLASSICAL DUET

26th February @ 7.30pm

EVENTS & NOTICE BOARD

FASTELAVN AT LONG BAY

26th February @ 9am

Fastelavn is one of the most important events in the Danish cultural calendar. If you've never been, you need to come and experience it, and if you have been before, you'll want to return!

We have again secured site 6 at Long Bay Regional Park. There is parking on site, but if we run out of space there's more parking across the road.

Practical Info

9 am: Picnic site opens. Feel free to come and claim your spot, have a swim and picnic lunch.

2 pm: Children's dress up parade
Lots of prizes!

2.30 pm: Tøndeslagning (Hitting the cat out of the barrel). This tradition is a very important part of the festivities: It symbolizes warding off all evil in preparation for Lent.

There will be three barrels: one for the children, one for the women, and one for the men.

3 pm: Games – running races, sack races, potato-on- spoon races, tug-of- war, etc.

Please note that all times are approximate – it is a party after all, and of course, proceedings will also be affected by how many people turn up. In case of heavy rain, the event will be held at Danish House, Penrose, instead and will start at 2pm

If you're in doubt, please ring Helle on 478 7016.

ROOM FOR RENT WANTED

Hey my name is Magnus Riisgaard Joergensen I'm born and raised in Denmark where I still live. I'm 25 years old and a open-minded, joyful and social person. In Denmark I live in a houseshare with five other people. I like being around other people sharing life. I'm studying to become a welfare worker my passion lies in working together with young people or humans in general. It is for this reason I'm coming to New Zealand to explore and learn about the culture and people.

At this stage I plan to arrive in NZ late May and I'm searching for a room to rent through until late November of this year.

I basically have no criteria for the room just somewhere affordable that I can sleep, shower and make food.

So, if you have a room or you know someone who has a room that I can rent I would be stoked to hear from you.

Please contact president@danish-society.org.nz if you can help

THANK YOU DANISH SOCIETY

A contribution that I have been meaning to send for years!

When Torben and I first arrived in Denmark for our OE, I got a job at the British embassy and each morning I would walk through the cemetery on my way to work. At that stage of my life I was a young kiwi wife embarking on a new adventure. I could not understand why so many of the Danes were called "fred". I now know better.

Kind regards, Guinny Sorensen

Thank you to the Society for the beautiful flowers delivered personally by Vibeke Courtenay to the Library at the Danish House when I celebrated my 95th birthday with family and friends. A special mention to Vibeke for the years of managing to get the flowers to the celebrating recipients, a job well done over many years. Thank you, Vibeke.

Best wishes Lilly Sorensen

Thank you for the flowers delivered all the way to Puhoi to mark my 70th birthday. Very much appreciated and containing sunflowers, which are a personal favourite.

Thanks again, Torben Sorensen
