

To
KARL ESKEKELUND, ESQ.,
Denmark's Consul-General for New Zealand

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Danish People and their friends residing in New Zealand, we the undersigned representatives, have much pleasure in handing you herewith a cheque for £1000.

It is the wish of our contributors that this money should be used for the purpose of helping needy women and children who have been left widows and orphans through the husband's sacrifice of his life at the altar for Denmark's Freedom.

From far off New Zealand we salute the unknown graves in the ocean, where Danish sailors made their last sacrifice.

We salute the silent crosses in Denmark's cemeteries and mourn with you the loss of so many brave sons of Denmark.

We respectfully request the Consul-General to convey to the Danish Government and the people of Denmark our heartiest congratulations for the unique and brave stand taken by His Majesty the King and the Danish people against the German domination during the occupation of Denmark.

Please accept our very best wishes for a prosperous and glorious future for Denmark.
